Proposing Lunch Topics

Topics may be wide-ranging in terms of the mission statement and of interest to faculty. Anyone proposing a session can organize other professors or staff to attend and share their ideas and observations informally, open with brief prepared remarks, or simply allow discussion to proceed from the topic.

More details are available from committee members. Sessions rotate among mid-week days during mid-day (11:30a to 1:45p).

Scholarship of Teaching and Learning SoTL

The Center encourages conversations about issues of teaching and learning. With others, we have been discussing ways to support the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (ToSL) and to define what this could mean at Westfield. Ideas include coordinating working groups to discuss faculty innovations in teaching and developing more formal ways of supporting research on teaching. Interested? Contact Diana Schwartz, 5298 <dschwartz@wsc.ma.edu>

We are always looking for...

Publications, art work, and other expressions of faculty professional activities for display and review in Parenzo 215, the Faculty Center. If you would like to share materials, or make suggestions about how to make them more widely accessible to the faculty, send materials to Diana Schwartz, 5298 <dschwartz@wsc.ma.edu> and share your ideas with any of us.

The Faculty Center

The Faculty Center promotes discussion of and reflection on our faculty's ideas and concerns about teaching, learning, scholarship, and the profession. The Center seeks to foster a community that celebrates both the diversity of individual fields of study and the unity of academic inquiry.

The Faculty Center (Parenzo 215) is open every weekday from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Please feel free any time to check our resources on pedagogy and the profession. We have a growing library of books on teaching and learning, a subscription to The Chronicle of Higher Education, handouts from previous brown bag lunch discussions, and a sample of WSC faculty promotion and tenure materials. You're also welcome to use the Faculty Center as a retreat from your office: you'll find sofas and comfortable chairs, a microwave, a coffee maker, and bottled water. We're eager to see more professors use the space, so please let us know if you have any suggestions for what you'd like in the Faculty Center.

Web Page

A WEB page for Faculty Center events is available at the WSC.edu site. Archives of reports on FC events published in the Newsletter, along with useful links to other sites are already there. Further suggestions: Oliver Zeff ozeff@wsc.ma.edu.
