Why YOU should attend this event:

- A large majority of jobs and internships are still found through our career fairs.
- Upgrade your part-time or summer job.
- Let's you practice your "elevator" speech about how your skills and education will be beneficial to the recruiter's company.
- The experience will help you better define your own job searches.
- Career fairs can be inspirational. You will leave more confident about your chances of finding a career.
- Career fairs are great ways to compare companies, getting your own impressions about their potential for your career.
- Get feedback on your resume from the recruiter.
- Practicing answering questions will make you more confident throughout the application process.
