

Educator Workshop

Disputed Names, Disputed Places: East Asia

Saturday, February 27
8:30am-12:30pm
Westfield State University

Presenters

Dr. Lauren McKee, Berea College
Arlene Kowal, Mass Geographic Alliance
Julie Kuo, Lexington High School

By Jackpoid (image:Topographic15deg_N20E120.png)
[CC BY-SA 3.0 (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/3.0>)], via Wikimedia Commons

East Sea or Sea of Japan? Dokdo or Takeshima? Diaoyu or Senkaku? Names and ownership of territories can have historical roots and contemporary implications. Join us as we explore disputed names and places in East Asia and how these disagreements impact not only the countries involved, but also the United States.

All participants will receive teaching materials. Massachusetts teachers will receive PDPs.

To register, send your name, e-mail address, telephone number, school name, grade(s) and subject(s) you teach to fcceas@fivecolleges.edu.

Questions? Contact fcceas@fivecolleges.edu.

This professional development opportunity is offered free of charge and is co-sponsored by

Five College Center for East Asian Studies
Westfield State University
Massachusetts Geographic Alliance