

Course Information Page
Winter 2015
CRJU 0340-550 (10036): ST: Evidence-Based Crime Policy
2 Week Accelerated Online Course (1/5-1/16)

❖ Instructor:

Dr. Byung Jun Cho

❖ Course Description:

This course is designed to provide students with a broad analysis of both historic and contemporary crime control strategies implemented by the police, courts, legislators, and the correctional system.

❖ Required Text:

Worrall, J.L. (2008). Crime control in America (2nd ed.)

❖ Course Requirements:

Students are required to read 1) the online lecture notes each day, 2) the assigned textbook materials each day, and 3) complete the three graded elements for the course.

There are three graded elements for the course, and are as follows:

- Quiz (100 points):
 - There will be 10 quizzes associated with chapters in the textbook.
- Test (300 points):
 - There will be 3 tests.
- Paper (100 points):
 - There will be one paper for this course, which will be approximately 5-7 double-spaced pages in length.

❖ Grade:

The final grade you earn will be based on the combined grades earned for each of the course requirements outlined above and will be guided by the following standard criteria (numbers represent earned points):

Three tests	300 points
Quizzes	100 points
Paper	100 points
<hr/>
	400 points