

In New England, students qualify for a tuition break when they attend an out-of-state college is closer to their home than the in-state college offering the same program.

See <http://www.nebhe.org/programs-overview/rsp-tuition-break/eligibilityfaqs/> or http://www.nebhe.org/wp-content/uploads/2013-14_RSP_TuitionBreak_Policies.pdf for background information and details.

Task

Prepare a simple – yet effective and professional – map for the Bursars Office (8.5 by 11, greyscale) showing the cities and town in Connecticut that fall under the proximity tuition break clause. On the map, explain the two main caveats of your proximity analysis.

Post the map on your blog.
