Chair’s Report:
• Meeting was convened at 4:00 (when we had quorum) by Chair Morales-Diaz
• Minutes from October 20, 2011 meeting approved with 3 abstentions
• Chair Morales-Diaz gave the Chair’s Report
  1. In reference to the question raised a couple of meetings ago about how a move to change Comp II to a sophomore-year requirement would affect students’ progression in disciplines, he explained that, officially, the only departments with such requirements were English and Psychology
  2. He then reminded us that the December 1st meeting was reserved for ROCCC discussions
  3. The final meeting of the semester will be December 15
  4. In response to the question about what constituted the purview of IAC and what was the purview of Curriculum, Chair Morales-Diaz explained that the job of IAC as a special committee was to assess student learning, while as a standing committee, the job of Curriculum is to conduct a review of the curriculum. IAC is meant to assess and evaluate outcomes, while Curriculum is meant to change the outcomes in response to that review. He explained that there is no guidance or precedent for assessing the CORE as a unit and that Curriculum would wait for IAC to offer their assessment.
