

The President's Award for Excellence in Leadership was created in 2007. To be eligible for this award, students must have a grade point average of 3.3 or higher and exhibit an impressive range of both university and community service activities. Award applicants are required to complete an application detailing their leadership experience, their volunteer work, and an essay detailing a challenge they overcame while in their leadership role.