

Summer Job Opportunity!

Locations: Offices in MA in Cambridge, Boston and Amherst. Out of state: NJ, CA, OR, ME, CT, NY and others.

Want to spend your summer working on urgent issues you care about, gaining skills that will last you a lifetime, and make good money?

The Fund for the Public Interest is seeking hard-working individuals with a passion for social change to fill citizen outreach and Field Manager positions across the country this summer.

Representatives from the organization will be on college campuses around the area as well as holding virtual info sessions as well.

RSVP for a 30 minute informational interview session at one of these times:

We are hiring full-time staff, with leadership opportunities available, with offices in over 25 cities across the country this summer, to work on issues like stopping global warming, or getting pesticides out of our food supply. Get experience with grassroots mobilization, fundraising and the skills and connections needed to launch a career in non-profit, political, or grassroots organizing!

Educate and engage citizens on pressing issues, build membership and raise money for environmental and social change groups. While on staff, you will have the opportunity to organize press conferences, gain knowledge of pressing concerns facing our country, learn how to effectively generate public support, and obtain a firm understanding of the political process.

Earn an average of $6,000-$8,000 this summer, working for something you believe in and build long-lasting relationships with a team of people from across the country who share your interests and concerns on important issues!

To apply online, visit: www.summerjobsthatmatter.org or call us directly at 1-800-75-EARTH!