

LSPA 0102: ELEMENTARY SPANISH II (ONLINE)

¡BIENVENIDOS!

Hugo M. Viera, Ph.D.
Department of World Languages
Mod Hall 104 PLATO e-mail

I. Course Description

Spanish II is the second semester course in the Spanish sequence, designed to help students attain proficiency at an elementary level in comprehending, speaking, reading, and writing Spanish, through a task-oriented approach to language acquisition.

Prerequisite: one semester of college-level (LSPA 0101) or one year of high school Spanish.

II. Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to perform proficiently, at a novice/elementary level, in the following language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. It also aims at raising the student's awareness to the complexities of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world, including those of communities in the United States.

III. Required Textbook (or v-text)*

Donley Philip R., late, and José A. Blanco. ¡Viva!: Primer curso de lengua española. 2nd ed. Boston: VHL, 2011. *Purchase of student access code to "Supersite" is obligatory.

IV. Course Evaluation

Students' performance will be evaluated based on: exams, weekly assignments, oral situations/interviews, oral presentations, etc.

V. Technology

Students are responsible for addressing any technology-related issues through CIT (x8142) or Computer Services (xHELP). Students must have a valid working e-mail address on file with the instructor; and, it is the students' responsibility to make initial contact with the instructor either via e-mail, or as directed in the course site.